

Institute for Advanced Studies Annual Research Programme

Performing Regions/Regional Performance: Regions and Regionalism in and beyond Europe

Conference 17-19 September 2007

Institute for Advanced Studies, Lancaster University

Sunday 16th September
18.30 onwards	Dinner at Spicy Hut for early arrivals
Monday 17th September
9.30-11.00	Registration and Tea/Coffee: [Conference Centre Foyer]
11.00-11.30	Conference opening: Robert Crawshaw , Director of 2006-07 Annual Research Programme, Lancaster University [Conference Centre Room 1]
11.30-13.00	Plenary 1: Nigel Thrift , University of Warwick - Talent Worlds; Mark Goodwin , University of Exeter – Exploring the relational region in a 'one planet' world [Conference Centre Room 1]
13.00-14.00	Lunch [Conference Centre Foyer] Exhibition - [Peter Scott Gallery] – 'Making our Mark: Visual Imprints on the Prison Landscape' Photography by Michael Jacobson-Hardy – Facilitator Anita Wilson
	Discursive Construction of Regional Space & Identities	Writing & Performing Regions	Global Orders, Regional Identity & Political Economy	Governing Regions
	[Conference Centre Room 6]	[IAS Room 1]	[IAS Room 2]	[IAS Room 3]
14.00-14.30	Andy van Drom "This Is Perhaps Not a Fiction": The Discursive Construction of National and Regional Identities in Belgium's Public Television Broadcast Hoax on Flemish Independency.	David Cooper The Mapping of Region: Boundary and Boundedness in Lake District Literature	John Urry Global Complexity	Muzeyyen Pandir-Dispinar The politics of speaking Europe and Europe's Other in the European Union
14.30-15.00	Barbara Sadler W(h)ither the Regions on ITV1?	Robert Crawshaw Kadare, Kosovo and metahistory	Sebastian Büttner World-cultural models and structural decoupling: an analysis of regional development strategies in Poland.	James Summers Georgia: Building a Sovereign State in the Caucasus
15.00-15.30	Nick Redfern Locational Nonsubstitutability and Regional Film Policy in the United Kingdom	Ewa Stańczyk Icon as a Marker of Regional Identity: The Case of Jerzy Harasymowicz	Philippe Suinen Regions in international relations: The added value of Regions acting internationally	Katriina Siivonen Regional identities in Southwest Finland archipelago: Perspectives of everyday life and local development work
15.30-16.00	Tea/Coffee [Conference Centre Foyer]
16.00-17.30	Panel 1: Michał Krzyzanowski, Ruth Wodak , Lancaster University - Language Policies, Ideologies & Identities in Contemporary Europe: Regional, National & Supranational Perspectives. [Conference Centre Room 3]
17.30-18.30	Break
18.30-19.00	Reception [Great Hall Foyer]
19.00-20.15	'Hotel Methuselah' [Great Hall]
20.15	Dinner [Great Hall Foyer]
Tuesday 18th September
9.00-10.30	Plenary 2: Joe Lambert , Founding Director of the Center for Digital Storytelling - Digital Storytelling and the space between; Martin Kenney , University of California, Davis - University-Centric Cluster Formation in the U.S.: Synergy [Conference Centre Room 1]
	Discursive Construction of Regional Space & Identities	Writing & Performing Regions	Global Orders, Regional Identity & Political Economy	Cultural Political Economy - Regions & Cities I
	[Conference Centre Room 6]	[IAS Room 1]	[IAS Room 2]	[IAS Room 3]

10.30-11.00	Kathryn Cramer Real and virtual places and spaces: regions and the people who imagine them	Bruce Bennet & Imogen Tyler The Cinema of Borders: Screening Ethnic Abjection	Olivier Sykes Territorial Positioning in a Changing Context: investigating regional responses to an emerging European territorial agenda	Ngai-Ling Sum A Cultural Political Economy of the Socio-Spatial Changes in the Pearl River Delta Region: Knowledge Brands and the (Re-)Making of Developmentalities
11.00-11.30	Clare Wydell Regional Resonances in Contemporary Spanish Identity Rhetoric	Jane Wilkinson Creating Cultural Regions on the German-Polish Border	Magnus Lindh, Hans Lödén, Lee Miles & Curt Räftegård Regional Action and the European Union: A Fusion Approach	Bob Jessop Cultural Political Economy of competitiveness - The case of the European Union
11.30-12.00	Frederic Barberà Barcelona since the Civil War	Osnat Rosen-Kremer & Iris Aravot Perception of spaces while on the move through the Carmel Beach strip	Trine Fotel Scaling regional policies - Inclusions and border-drawings in governance networks	Bronislaw Szerszynski & Larry Reynolds GMOs and the contested construction of European space
12.00-12.15	Tea/Coffee [Conference Centre Foyer]
12.15-13.30	Panel 2: Lynne Pearce , Lancaster University - Imagined Spaces [Conference Centre Room 3]
13.30-14.30	Lunch [Conference Centre Foyer]
14.30-16.00	Plenary 3: Roger Kemp , Lancaster University - Transport – the nexus of communities, globalisation, self-image and the environment; Mark Casson , Reading Business School - Transport Infrastructure and Regional Development [Conference Centre Room 1]
16.00-16.15	Tea/Coffee [Conference Centre Foyer]
	Discursive Construction of Regional Space & Identities	Governing Regions		Cultural Political Economy - Regions & Cities II
	[Conference Centre Room 6]	[IAS Room 1]		[IAS Room 3]
16.15-16.45	Moira Stevenson & Maureen Wayman The Relevance of the North West Textile Legacy to the Creative Industries of the 21st Century	Ramon Ribera-Fumaz Creative Cities and Regional Uneven Development		Raphael Ramuz From World Lobbying to Domestic Policy Making: Re-scaling Spaces of Political Intervention. How country-based transnational capital tries to reframe the spatial fix of swiss domestic economy
16.45-17.15	Tamsin Spargo Padstein and Tebay: Economies of Consumption in the Construction of Identities	David Etherington & Martin Jones City-Regions, Competitiveness, Labour Market Inequalities		Santiago Leyva-Botero From discovering the regional marginal economy to the creation of accumulation at the margins of the region
17.15-17.45	Vasanta Sobha Turaga Globalization And protection of cultural built heritage in developing countries – A case study of Hyderabad	Steve Caunce The dog that did not bark: Northern England, Nationalism and Regional Devolution		Yuan Chi Ping The new developments of the Pan-Pearl River Delta (PPRD) cooperation
17.45-18.45	Panel 3: Gordon Clark - Legacy, Enterprise, Devolution and Governance [Conference Centre Room 3]
18.45-20.00	Break
20.00	Conference Dinner [Barker House Farm]
Wednesday 19th September
9.30-10.30	Plenary 4: Michael Emerson , Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels - Conceptualising and Operationalising the Wider European Union [Room 1]
10.30-11.00	Tea/Coffee [Conference Centre Foyer]
		Writing & Performing Regions	Global Orders, Regional Identity & Political Economy	Cultural Political Economy - Regions & Cities III
		[IAS Room 1]	[IAS Room 2]	[IAS Room 3]
11.00-11.30		Charlotte Baker Constructing Marginal Identities in the Novels of Didier Destremau, Patrick Grainville and Williams Sassine.	Osnat Rosen-Kremer Times of war and spaces of flows: The emergence of "Ba'ada Haifa" perceived region	Nana Rodaki Constructing Competitiveness in Greater Rome: Identities, practices and the recontextualization of a hegemonic discourse.

11.30-12.00		Francesc Montero Catalan and English Catholic right-wing journalism in the first half of the 20th century: A review of G. K. Chesterton, Hilaire Belloc and Manuel Brunet	Sjur Kasa & Anders Underthun Socio-political foundations of national innovation strategies: The case of natural gas based strategies in Norway	Tove Dannestam The Entrepreneurial City in a Nordic Context – A Challenge to the Traditional Orientation and Framing of Local Politics?
12.00-12.30		Amit Thakkar Irony and the Mexican Countryside: the Pitfalls of Cultural Representation in the Fiction of Juan Rulfo	Joan Costa Font "Representation without Taxation"? Informal Cooperation and the Spanish Devolution	Guang Han Chen & Xi Yuan Li Globalization and Regionalization in the Economic Integration of Hong Kong, Macao and PRD in South China
12.30-13.30	Lunch [Conference Centre Foyer]
13.30-15.00	Closing panel: Robert Crawshaw - Researching Regions: past presents, future perfect? [Conference Centre Room 3]
15.00	Close of Conference			