

2003-4 Ruskin and Social Thought

Autumn Term

- 9 October Peter Anthony
The One Ruskin
- 16 October John Batchelor
Dreadful Hammers and Blinking Puseyisms: Ruskin and Pauline Trevelyan's Notes on the Construction of a Sheepfold
- 23 October Clive Wilmer (Cambridge)
Unto This Last
- 30 October Ray Haslam
Ruskin at the Working Men's College
- 6 November David Peacock
Ruskin and the Social Conception of the May Queen
- 20 November Tony Pinkney (Lancaster University)
Ruskin, Morris and 'The Nature of Gothic'
- 27 November Marcus Waithe
Morris, Ruskin and Hospitality
- 4 December Phillip Blond
Ruskin on Government: Munera Pulveris
- 11 December Alan Davis (Lancaster)
'The Nature of Gothic': Shedding light on Ruskin's etchings, Bob Dylan, and Chinese pottery.

Lent Term

- 15 January Brian Ingram
Brothers in Arms: William Morris and the Fight for Socialism
- 22 January Stephen Wildman (Lancaster University)
"Some trifle of good work": The Laxey Woollen Mill, Ruskin and the Isle of Man
- 29 January Gill Cockram
The Reception and Influence of Ruskin's Social Thought, 1850 - 1906
- 5 February Mike Sanders
The Chartist Context
- 12 February Nick Shrimpton
Ruskin and the Science of Economics

26 February	Andrew Tate (Lancaster University) The Creed of the Guild of St George
4 March	Peter Rowe Ruskin on War
11 March	Lawrence Goldman From Art to Politics: Ruskin and Morris Compared
18 March	Stuart Eagles An Overview
Summer Term
22 April	Howard Hull (Brantwood) The Public Face of Ruskinian Education.
29 April	Jeffrey Richards (Lancaster University) Ruskin and the Fall of Empires.
6 May	Cynthia Gamble Ruskin and Lower Normandy: A Discussion with slides.
13 May	Keith Hanley (Lancaster University) Next Year's Programme
20 May	Robert Hewison "St Mark's": Ruskin, Proust and the Protestant Beholder.